

FALLING A Spirituality for the Two Halves of Life UPWARD

Growing Old in America

a weekly discussion series of

Falling Upward: A spirituality for the Two Halves of Life
by Father Richard Rohr

Offered by The Revs. Susan Clark and Michelle Mooney

Do you ever wonder about what the purpose is of growing old?

Why we are so concerned about loss?

When do you think you entered the second half of life?

How trapped are we around the culture's ideas of growing old?

Does death have a meaning?

Why is everyone interested in the physiological aspects of aging but not the spiritual?

Can there be a special place for prayer in later life?

How is aging affected by having or not having a spouse?

If you over 65 years of age and wonder what the future holds for you as a Christian in America, join us for five weeks of lively discussion on the meaning of growing old and growing into a spirituality for the second half of life.

We will meet weekly for five sessions at St. Mark's Church at 2618 N. Hackett Ave on Milwaukee's eastside. Sessions will be held Wednesday afternoons, June 8 through July 6, from 1-2:30 p.m.

The series will be limited to a maximum of ten to ensure ample discussion. To inquire about the series or to enroll, contact Michelle Mooney at michellemooney5@gmail.com or call 414-964-3118.
