

SAVE THE DATE for a

BENEFIT ROCK CONCERT – featuring Monstrance (Rocks) & Special M.C.: Ran Hamner

When: Friday evening, February 28, 2014

Doors open at 6:30 p.m.; concert begins at 7:00 p.m.

Where: St. Christopher's Episcopal Church Community Room

7845 North River Road, River Hills, WI 53217

Cost: Free-will donation

Refreshments available for purchase (No alcoholic beverages)

Who benefits? Proceeds will be given to
Red Door Clothes (St. James' & Trinity Episcopal Churches)
&
Hospitality Center, Racine (St. Luke's Episcopal Church)

Who should attend:

People of all ages who

- live near or far,
- like music,
- like to have fun, &
- enjoy fellowship.

We think it will be a great time for you - whether you arrive solo or with friends and/or family

About the Band:

“Monstrance, AKA The Rectors of Rock AKA The Collar Studs is a band comprised of Episcopal priests resident in the Diocese of Milwaukee.

The Band Members are:

- The Rev. Drew Bunting, Rector of St. James’ Milwaukee – Bass and Lead Vocals
- The Rev. Don Fleischmann, Rector of St. Barnabas, Richland Center – Keyboard, Accordion and Guitar
- The Very Rev. Andrew Jones, Rector of St. Andrew’s, Madison – Lead Guitar
- The Rev. David Simmons, Rector of St. Matthias, Waukesha – Drums

The Rev. Seth Dietrich, Rector of Christ Church, Whitefish Bay “serves as our manager, whether he acknowledges it or not.”

From <http://monstrancerocks.com/about/>

Sponsored by the Outreach Committee of St. Christopher’s