

STORYTELLING & DRAMA WORKSHOP

for children 5-11 years

Do your children like stories? If so, they are invited to St. Luke's summer Saturday Workshop where they will write, rehearse, create props, and produce their own original plays on the topic of PEACE.

WHEN: Saturday, August 13, 2016

WHERE: St. Luke's Episcopal Church, 4011 Major Ave, Madison, WI

WHEN: 9:00 am (sharp) – 1:00 pm

- ◇ Parents are welcome to drop off or hangout
- ◇ Performance for family and friends at 12:30 pm
- ◇ Lunch for participants and all guests at 1:00 pm.

SUGGESTED DONATION: $5/child

HOW TO REGISTER:

- ◇ Email Hollywalterkerby@gmail.com by August 9, 2016 to register for the workshop and/or lunch. Spaces are limited.
- ◇ For more information, email hollywalterkerby@gmail.com.

INSTRUCTORS:

Holly Walter Kerby is an award-winning playwright and educator, and the Executive Director of Fusion Science Theater. She teaches story workshops for children, educators, undergraduate and graduate students, and scientists across the country.

Deborah Sproule is a champion singer and life-long artist and educator. She has an MFA in sculpture from the UW-Madison. Her peace is games, songs, and making art with children.