STATIONS OF THE CROSS

The Stations of the Cross offer a guided meditation path. Booklets describing the meaning of each station with suggested prayers are available here in the Little Free Library. Take a book, leave a book.

The map above offers a general guide to the location of the stations visible behind the church. Each will be numbered and named.

The Franciscans, followers of St. Francis, started the devotions as a reminder of the path pilgrims followed in Jerusalem.

In Europe, by the 15th and 16th centuries, the Franciscans were building outdoor shrines intended to recreate the experience of pilgrimage in the Holy Land.

Our outdoor Stations of the Cross are descendants of those outdoor places of prayer.

We hope the experience of outdoor prayer, in nature, offers healing to soul and strengthens your spiritual journey.

GUIDELINES

Here are some general guidelines you can follow to help ensure a pleasant and respectful visit:

If you must speak while in the place of prayer, speak quietly out of respect for the sacred space. You may wish to avoid speaking, silence is a healing gift.

Create a respectful atmosphere. Guests are asked to limit conversation and speak in subdued tones. It is considered impolite to interrupt or walk in front of someone in prayer.

ABOUT US

We are an Episcopal church, and our priest in charge is the Rev. Julian V. Hills.

All are welcome to attend and participate in worship services in the historic Christian tradition. All baptized Christians are welcome to receive the bread and wine of the Eucharist. Father Julian anoints those wishing a healing blessing with oil after communion. Unless you plan to join us in worship, try not to enter or leave the indoor worship space during worship services or prayers.

If you wish to make a small donation, a plate is passed around during worship services to collect gifts.

If you wish to support the Place of Prayer, donations may also be mailed to:
